Pursuant to an order of the court of Washington County, dated the 10th day of January last, I have stated, settled and adjusted the guardian account of Thomas McSpadden with the children of Moses McSpadden dec'd and find the same to stand as above stated. I have allowed the guardian twenty five dollars for his trouble & commissions up to this time, which I think reasonable. - The Guardian having made a contract with Thomas Montgomery (who has intermarried with the mother of his wards) to board, cloath & school them, and in consideration thereof and for his wife's thirds of the hire of the negroes, that he the said Montgomery should have the services of the slave Solomon from the first of January 1828 - the hire of that slave will not further appear on the guardian account. All which is most respectfully reported, I being first sworn for the purpose.

Given under my hand this 3^d of March 1830.

David Campbell.

At a Court held for Washington County the 16th day of March 1830.

This Settlement of the Guardian account of Thomas McSpadden guardian of the children of Moses McSpadden just deceased was returned to court by the Commissioner and ordered to be recorded.

Teste of Jacob Lynch.

In the Name of God Amen; I Jacob Bleving sen^r of Washington County and state of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but being in a low state of health and considering that life is uncertain, and that death is the inevitable lot of all, do hereby make this my last Will and Testament, after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses. In manner thereon following to wit, Item First I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth Bleving one negro woman named Belly to dispose of as she may see cause, I further loan her my two negro men to work, Daniel and Randolph, during her natural life, I will that the said negroes loaned work on the premises I now occupy under the control and direction of my son Solomon, and that the one half of the grain of every description made thereon be at the disposal of my said wife, or otherwise she is to occupy such part of the dwelling house farm and out houses as will be sufficient for her peaceable and comfortable accommodation, during her natural life, and at her death I hereby will and bequeath to my son Solomon and his heirs forever, the farm or tract of land aforesaid including my dwelling house and all other out houses, the said

123. land by a late survey amounts to one hundred and eighty two acres. I give to my wife all the household household and kitchen furniture, farming utensils, one young mare named Doll, all my stock of Sheep, three milch cows, all my stock of hogs, and my grain of every description now on hand.

Item. Second. I will and bequeath unto my son Jacob Belsing and his heirs forever two hundred and twenty seven acres of land surveyed from the aforesaid one hundred and eighty two acres given to Solomon.

Item. Third. Having as a legacy agreed to give my son Abraham a certain tract or parcel of land, and after occupying it for some years he appeared dissatisfied, I then proffered to take the land back and at some convenient time to pay him twelve hundred dollars in lieu for the land. I have since paid him, two negroes, both by name Sam and Sally rated at four hundred dollars forty five dollars to Mr Bealee on account of Gasper Phipps, eighty dollars to Bealee for one mare, one cow ten dollars - and other accounts I have against him unsettled to a considerable amount, and when the last mentioned account is fairly adjusted, I will that my executors hereafter named do pay out of my estate the residue of the twelve hundred dollars to said Abram Belsing or his legal representative.

Item. Fourth. I will and bequeath to my son John Belsing and his heirs forever a part of the tract of land whereon he now lives, Beginning at a corner to Manses land and running with Manses line to Henry Dore's corner line, and with his line to George Haynes line and then with his line to Nathaniel Harris, and with his line to where John Hayes beginning corner and from thence to two sugar trees near a branch corner to John Byars' heirs land from thence with the outside line up to Manses.

Item. Fifth. I will and bequeath to my son David Belsing and his heirs forever the lands whereon he now lives.

Item. Sixth. Having given my daughter Elizabeth Sing the one hundred and twenty five acres of land whereon she now dwells for the benefit of her children hereafter and other property &c. to the amount of seven hundred and fifty four dollars, there only remains for her &c. forty six dollars, which I hereby will & bequeath to her and her children.

Item. Seventh. Having given my daughter Mary Wheeler, the amount of three hundred and forty five dollars and fifty cents, there yet remains for her four hundred fifty four dollars and fifty cents, which I will and bequeath to her & her heirs forever, and that my executors hereafter named pay the same to her or her order.

Item. Eighth. To my daughter Katherine Denton having received the sum of six hundred and forty nine dollars, there yet remains for her the sum of one hundred and fifty one dollars, which I bequeath and will unto her and her heirs forever, and that my executors hereafter named pay the same to her as above out of my estate.

Item. Ninth. Having given my daughter Rebecca Roulard the amount of six hundred and sixteen dollars, there only remains for her one hundred and eighty dollars which I will & bequeath unto her and her heirs.

Item. Tenth. Having given my daughter Susannah Byars for the benefit of her and her children only, one negro girl named Amira, pric'd one hundred dollars, a tract of land, cows, saddle and the security debts paid for her husband Arthur B. Byars will amount to her portion of eight hundred dollars, or more. I therefore bequeath no more to her nor any of her heirs.

Item 11th I Will and bequeath to my grandson Joseph Blessing one middle priced horse & saddle, if he personally applies for it.

Item Twelfth. Having given my daughter Ann Beyers the amount of five hundred and fifty six dollars, to wit, one negro boy named Joe, and one horse, two cows, bureau and table, one bridle and saddle, and there still remains for her two hundred and forty four dollars, all of which I will and bequeath to her and her children, forever.

Item 13th I Will also that all my heirs having an interest any way in this my last Will I shall wait for their pay four years after my decease, and take their pay of my Executors hereafter named, in horses or other good trade at valuation price.

Item Fourteenth. I Will that my Executors think it is practicable after my decease if think it advantageous to sell all my surplus land that is not willed away and take such trade as will answer the purpose of payg up my children that has not as yet received their portion as stated above.

Item Finally. I do hereby appoint my two sons Jacob Blessing & Solomon Blessing Executors to this my last Will and Testament. In Testimony whereof
I have hereunto affixed my seal and set my hand this the ninth day January in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred thirty.

In presence of us.
