J. Paul Lynch a Commissioner of the county court of Washington, has proceeded to examine state and settle the executorial account of Cornelius Carmack executor of William Carmack since deceased with the estate of the deceased, and find the foregoing to be a true statement of the said account, and that after allowing the executor the sum of $108.75, which I deem reasonable, as a compensation for his personal trouble and payment of the expenses attending this settlement, there remains in his hands due the estate the sum of forty cents. Given under my hand this 5th day of April 1852.

Paul Lynch M. Comm.

At a court continued and held for Washington county the 1st day of July 1852.

This Settlement of the estate of William Carmack since deceased which has been filed in the clerk's office of this court for more than one month past and to which there are no exceptions, was examined by the court and found to be correct and it is ordered that the same be confirmed and rounded.
